

I am just writing to add my voice to the many who have severe environmental and public health concerns about Biomass plants being built in Massachusetts and receiving "clean" energy subsidies. The evidence clearly shows that the effect of biomass is deforestation and deterioration of air quality. I urge you to seek truly renewable, safe and clean alternatives (WIND!) and not bow to pressure from biomass developers.

S. H. Kosisky
Greenfield, MA